

Somewhere

Verse: 1

Running away from everything that makes you feel complete.
A thought kept at bay. Potentiality now in retreat.

Chorus:

Everything and nothing leads to something, someone or somewhere.
What if these things of nothing lead to something, someone or somewhere?

Verse: 2

The mind's eye betrays beholding imperfections infant form.
In shadowed melee. Scaling the heights of bitter scorn.

Chorus:

Everything and nothing leads to something, someone or somewhere.
What if these things of nothing lead to something...

Bridge:

that's reaching out again, again, again, reaching out again.

Verse: 3

I know the fear you keep inside. I know the goodness you desire.
As chances slip away and you watch the time expire.
So look away but I'm here for you whenever you get around to...

Chorus:

Everything and nothing leads to something, someone or somewhere.
What if these things of nothing lead to something, someone or somewhere?
